

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my absolute pleasure to recommend Taylor Fox as a teacher and theater director. Taylor is not only a dear friend, but also someone I deeply admire and love working alongside. I have had the opportunity to witness firsthand the incredible impact she has on her students and the programs she serves.

Taylor is a rare blend of boundless creativity and exceptional organization. She is an inspired director whose genuine love for theater radiates into every rehearsal and performance. That passion is a true gift to her students, creating an environment where they feel both challenged and supported. Taylor holds her students to a high standard of excellence, while also ensuring that rehearsals remain engaging, joyful, and full of life.

Beyond her directing skills, Taylor is brilliant in her understanding of psychology, history, and musical theory. She has a remarkable ability to connect with students on a personal level, offering them comfort, encouragement, and guidance when they need it most. Her students trust her, respect her, and feel safe coming to her for support—an invaluable quality in any educator.

I am confident that Taylor Fox would be an incredible asset to any educational program. She not only elevates the artistic quality of a program, but also nurtures the hearts and confidence of the students within it. Any school or organization would be fortunate to have her as part of their team.
